outstanding COACHING

Greg McDermott

Fifth-year UNI head coach Greg McDermott has been a winner everywhere he's been as a coach, including turning the Panthers into one of the nation's rising programs. He has guided the Panthers to two straight NCAA tournament berths, including the school's first-ever at-large bid in 2005.

McDermott has a career record of 198-117 in 11 seasons as a head coach, an average of 18 wins per season. He has posted an impressive 42-21 mark the past two years at UNI, which is tied for the most wins ever over a two-year period in Panther basketball history.

A big part of the Panthers' success has been the top-notch coaching staff that McDermott has surrounded himself with. McDermott and UNI have been fortunate to have solid individuals who have a wide and varied background in coaching.

Ben Jacobson, UNI's associate head coach, has been at UNI all five years with McDermott and one before that at North Dakota State. A former team captain and point guard at North Dakota, Jacobson has more than 10 years of collegiate coaching experience.

Jeff Rutter is in his third year on UNI's staff. He has more than 18 years of coaching experience on the high school and college level, including seven years as head coach at Wisconsin-Parkside.

P.J. Hogan is in his first season as a full-time assistant coach at UNI, after serving as a graduate manager the past two seasons for McDermott. Hogan has previously served as an assistant coach at Southwest Minnesota State, as well as serving as an aid to McDermott in the past at Wayne State and North Dakota State.

Veteran coach Ron Smith is also on staff, in a new role this year as director of basketball operations. Smith has been involved with high school and college basketball for nearly 30 years, serving as head high school coach at Coulterville (Ill.), Benton (Ill.) and Alton (Ill.), while also serving as an assistant coach to Rich Herrin at Southern Illinois for nine seasons. He has been at UNI for eight years.

theUNI EXPERIENCE

Bill Smith

1969-73

Captain 1972-73

President

Wm Smith Securities, Inc.

Denver, Colo.

"Athletics has always been an important part of my life. We learn through competition, whether we win or lose. There are tough calls in sports just as in life. Athletics teaches us never to quit no matter the situation. Attitude determines winners and losers. Sports levels the playing field for everyone. Life's experiences parallel that of sports, which is why I think participating in sports at any level is important.

"Playing basketball and representing UNI was a thrill, and four years of my life I will always cherish. The opportunity to get an education at UNI, both in the classroom and on the court, has helped me immensely in my career. My heart is full of many great memories of UNI people that helped shape my life."

Randy Kraayenbrink

1982-86

Financial Associate,
Thrivent Financial

"One of my first basketball games as a Panther was played in front of a crowd seven times the population of my hometown. An inexperienced, naïve, small town boy had hit the 'big town' of Cedar Falls and UNI. The college challenge had begun.

"I battled late night study sessions and grueling practices. I learned the value of hard work, to never give up and be positive. The education and the habits of discipline outside the classroom were priceless.

"With the help of caring professors, dedicated coaches and fun-loving teammates, my four years at UNI flew by. I played my last game in the Dome as an experienced, mature, and accomplished person. I walked off the court ready for the rest of life's challenges. Thank you, UNI."

Dale Turner

1988-92

Teacher/Coach

Clyde C. Miller Academy

"Playing at UNI was a great life experience for me. The teammates I had and friendships I made, in addition to playing for one of college basketball's greatest coaches is something I'll cherish forever. The positive community atmosphere that Cedar Falls-Waterloo has is what college life should be about.

"Being a part of the first UNI team to advance to the NCAA tournament stands out as one of the finest accomplishments of my life, and to see the 2003-04 team make an impressive run in the MVC tournament in St. Louis made me proud to be a Panther. Good luck in the 2005-06 season and Go Panthers!"

Andy Woodley

1998-02

Head Boys Basketball Coach

Physical Education/Health Teacher

Sam Rayburn High School

Pasadena, Texas

"The University of Northern Iowa offers a great opportunity to excel both academically and athletically. I am honored to have had the opportunity to receive an education that has provided me with the foundation to excel in my career as a teacher and coach.

"Playing basketball at UNI taught me many life long lessons that have carried over to my current career. Organizational skills, discipline and preparation are among many skills I took away from my UNI experience. From the moment I had dinner for the first time with Coach Mac on his interview visit, I knew he had all the attributes of a great coach to help UNI succeed. The rapport he establishes with players and coaches alike forms lifelong friendships. He always has time for everyone and is a great fit for UNI and the community. He was more than a coach for me. He was, and continues to be, a mentor and he is concerned with you as a person, not just a player.

"I went through a trying senior season, plagued with injuries. He believed in me and really stuck with me giving me the opportunity to finish out my UNI career on a positive note. The camaraderie with the players, coaches, students and the community that Coach Mac and his staff have created is second to none. Playing at UNI, and learning from Coach Mac, has prepared me as a coach. In my first season as a head coach, we won more games (18) than had been won since 1987 and beat our cross-town rival for the first time in 21 straight games. Finishing the 2004-2005 season with the highest district finish in 13 years, we are optimistic this season as 4 starters return.

"It's great to be a Panther!"

Steve Phyfe

1986-90

Assistant Manager,
Scheels All Sports, Inc

"UNI was a stepping stone for my life-long dream of playing professional basketball. My experience here enabled me to start a pro career which lasted 10 years. I was able to travel the world and have visited 37 countries thanks to basketball. When it was time to hang up the basketball shoes, I never forgot where my dream started - UNI. Going to Milwaukee last season to watch UNI in the "Big Dance" brought back so many memories of when I was fortunate to play in the 1990 NCAA tournament. We were part of history and I treasure all those memories and friendships that I made. Thank you UNI for helping me achieve my dreams! Go Panthers!!"

FIRST CLASS FACILITIES: THE UNI-DOME

Home to Panther men's basketball since the 1975-76 season, the UNI-Dome is a unique, multi-purpose facility that has gained a reputation as one of the finest collegiate facilities in America.

The Dome combines the features of a field house, football stadium, and large auditorium. It contains accommodations for a variety of events, such as concerts, trade shows and convocations. In addition to UNI sporting events, it has been the host site for NCAA 1-AA football playoffs, gymnastics and wrestling championships, the Iowa high school football playoffs, and many other top-flight events. The Dome's versatility allows for football and basketball games or track meets to be held on the same day.

The formerly air-supported, teflon-coated fabric roof was replaced seven years ago with a permanent structure. Approximately 16,400 spectators can be seated for football games and track meets, and although the normal capacity is 10,000 for basketball, seating can be expanded to more than 20,000.

FIRST CLASS FACILITIES: MCLEOD CENTER

Coming Fall 2006: The new home of UNI basketball

It is impossible to imagine the UNI campus without the UNI-Dome. It began merely as a dream. Today, this facility stands as visible evidence of the dedication of alumni and friends who have helped build the facilities UNI students and programs deserve.

Ground was broken for the McLeod Center in the fall of 2004. It will be a facility specifically built for the Panther volleyball, basketball and wrestling programs. It will provide year-round training opportunities and be attached to the south end of the UNI-Dome. Together with the Wellness and Recreation Center, it will complete a state-of-the-art athletic and recreation complex. There will be seating for approximately 7,000 fans.

The McLeod Center will provide a focal point for students, faculty, staff, alumni and the community to come together and cheer on the Panthers. It will bolster the image of the university and will ensure continued success and growth of UNI's proud student-athlete tradition.

Missouri Valley Conference

The MVC ranked eighth in the nation in the final RPI in 2004-2005.

Since 1989, a total of 27 MVC teams have played in the NIT.

The MVC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA tournament each of the past seven seasons. Over the past 12 seasons, a total of 24 MVC schools have advanced to the NCAA tournament.

The MVC regular-season champion has received an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament each of the past seven seasons.

In 2004-2005 the MVC received five postseason bids - three in the NCAAs and two in the NIT.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

Most noteworthy in 2004-05 was the success in the sport of men's basketball. For an amazing seventh consecutive season, the Valley earned multiple berths in the NCAA Tournament. And for only the third time in league history - and the first since 1999 - three conference teams qualified for the Big Dance. Two others qualified for the NIT, marking the first time in Valley history that five men's basketball teams qualified for post-season play.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, the Valley's ninth commissioner, the Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. That role came to a spectacular climax in April 2005 as the conference collaborated with local partners to stage the Final Four at the Edward Jones Dome.

This continuing involvement of the MVC in hosting NCAA events represents one of the most concentrated stretches of host opportunities for any university or conference in the 67-year history of the national championship tournament. The 2005 host opportunity was the sixth in eight years for the MVC in St. Louis. The league had previously hosted men's regionals in 1998, 1999, and in 2004; a men's first/second round event in 2002 and the Women's Final Four in 2001. The Valley will host a men's basketball regional in 2007 and a Women's Final Four in 2009.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Missouri State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, and Wichita State University.

Building on a strong tradition of teacher education, the University of Northern Iowa has evolved into one of the finest comprehensive public universities in the country. UNI emphasizes excellence in undergraduate education and offers selected graduate programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The university offers a learning environment that is small enough to provide students with individualized attention, yet large enough to provide a variety of resources, including distinguished faculty. UNI's special combination of challenge and support is indeed a key ingredient of a "Students First" education.

Today, UNI offers more than 120 undergraduate majors. Outstanding academic programs, many of which are nationally-recognized for their excellence, have been established in the colleges of Business Administration, Education, Humanities and Fine Arts, Natural Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. In addition, UNI participates in the bachelor of liberal studies program offered by Iowa's Regent Universities and provides classes in centers around the state through the division of Continuing Education and Special Programs.

Recognized as the premier public undergraduate university in the state, UNI is delivering on the demand for its high-quality programs. Enrollment at UNI was 12,513 students in the fall of 2005. Students come from every county in Iowa, and about 94 percent of UNI's undergraduate students are residents of Iowa upon enrollment.

The University of Northern Iowa was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. It became Iowa State Teachers College in 1909. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature changed the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

Traveling with

UNI travelled to Australia in August 2003 for a six-game tour.

this is

When UNI travels long distances, the Panthers used commercial air travel. However, for several UNI trips each year, particularly in conference play, the Panthers are fortunate enough to be able to travel via chartered planes.

These chartered flights give the team the flexibility to travel on a much more abbreviated schedule, often going to a game and back within 24 hours. This provides the advantage of being able to avoid having to go through the main airport terminal, simply walking to and getting on the plane. In addition, less class time is missed.

Nearly all of UNI's flights leave from Waterloo Regional Airport, a mere 10 minute drive from campus.

Media Coverage

Panther Radio Network

UNI found a new radio home on the airways in 2000. KXEL (1540 AM), a 50,000 watt station in Waterloo, Iowa, is the Panthers' flagship station. Affiliates include KGLO (1300 AM, Mason City), KWKY (1150 AM, Des Moines), and KQWC (1570 AM/95.7 FM) in Webster City.

Long-time UNI announcer Gary Rima will once again be joined by color analyst Kevin Boyle. All of UNI's home and away games are carried, and head coach Greg McDermott's has a weekly coach's call-in show, aired live at 6:00 p.m. each Thursday night.

The Panthers' games also are available on UNI's website at www.unipanthers.com

Print Coverage

UNI basketball is covered regularly by three state of Iowa newspapers: the Waterloo-Cedar Falls Courier, the Cedar Rapids Gazette, and the Des Moines Register.

The Courier, UNI's hometown paper, travels to nearly all of UNI's away men's basketball games and its coverage of Panther athletics is arguably the best of any daily to cover a Missouri Valley Conference school.

UNIPanthers.com

All of UNI's up-to-date information can be found at the Panthers' official athletic website, www.unipanthers.com. Here you can not only find statistics, results and releases on all of UNI's athletic teams, but also hear all of UNI's men's basketball broadcasts streamed live.

this is

UNI on TV

UNI will be well-chronicled on air waves again this season, including television on KFXA (Fox 28) out of Cedar Rapids. It will telecast the Panthers' game against Iowa from the UNI-Dome on Dec. 6, and their game at Drake on Jan. 28. Rob Brooks handles the play-by-play duties, while Mac McCausland serves as analyst. Fox 28 also will produce Greg McDermott's weekly coach's show, which airs at 11 a.m. each Saturday.

In addition, since Greg McDermott took over as head coach, the Panthers have made appearances on CBS, ESPN, ESPN2 and Fox Sports Net, among other affiliates. UNI appeared on national, regional or local television in nearly two-thirds of its games in 2004-05.

UNI Fight Song

Hail our Panthers we are ever loyal,
Showing strength and unity
As we rise we firmly stand behind you
Urge you on to victory. Rah! Rah! Rah!
As you lead us on to fame and honor
Fight! Fight! Fight! Will be our cry
So give us a yell, Ho
The purple and the gold
Victory for UNI!

UNI

The University of Northern Iowa strives for success. Panthers push to excel not only on their athletic fields, but in the classroom as well. The UNI athletic department sponsors 18 intercollegiate sports, eight men's programs and 10 women's programs.

UNI fields teams in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, track and field and wrestling on the men's side, while supporting basketball, cross country, golf, tennis, track and field, soccer, softball, swimming and volleyball for women.

All programs are members of Division I, with football competing at the I-AA level. Sixteen of UNI's sports belong to the Missouri Valley Conference, except football which is a member of the Gateway Football Conference, and wrestling, which competes as an independent.

Academically, UNI student-athletes are near the top of the Missouri Valley Conference in overall grade point average, and regularly graduate at a higher rate than the general student population.

None of this would be possible without Panther supporters. Ask any coach or student-athlete and they will agree: UNI students and faculty, along with the Cedar Valley, are integral parts of Panther success.

Strength and Conditioning

JED SMITH
Strength and Conditioning

Jed C. Smith, the Explosive Strength Training Coach for the National Football League's Minnesota Vikings since February of 2004, joined UNI's staff as Strength and Conditioning Coach in June.

Smith has a wide and varied background in strength and conditioning training. In addition to his work with the Vikings, he also assisted the Minnesota Wild of the National Hockey League, the Minnesota Thunder of the United Soccer League and Penn State football in an effort to incorporate explosive strength training into their individual programs.

Beginning in June of 2002, he was an Exercise and Sports Science instructor at Dakota County Technical College in Rosemount, MN and also served as the Minnesota USA Weightlifting Regional Training Center director during the same time frame.

Prior to 2002, he had several coaching assignments at Rosemount High School beginning in 1996, including ninth grade boys basketball and wrestling. He served as Rosemount's strength training and conditioning coach for all sports from 1997-2002, was head boys tennis coach from 2000-2002, and coached the school's Olympic weight lifting from 1999-2002.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in Social Science from Minnesota-Morris in 1994 and a second bachelor's degree in Psychology in 1995. He received his master's in Education with an emphasis in Strength and Conditioning from Hamline University in 2003.

He was born in Cedar Rapids, IA, and his wife's name is Tammy.

The UNI Strength and Conditioning program is a blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each student-athlete.

Throughout the year, UNI athletes can spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game. During the off-season, athletes work on strength improvement, speed, power, agility and conditioning. The in-season program is devoted to continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

Throughout an athlete's first year on campus, baseline measures of strength, speed, power, agility, flexibility and endurance are collected. Measure of body composition and weight also are recorded. With this information, goals are set for development and maintenance. Programs are established for each player.

To ensure the SAAP's effectiveness and protect students' rights, the following guidelines govern the program:

- The academic or athletics status of the student will not be jeopardized by the student seeking assistance.
- The program must protect the privacy of the student by employing strict confidentiality measures. Any details of communication between students and Core Committee members or Athletics Department personnel may not be disclosed to any source without the prior written consent of the student-athlete.
- The decision to use the program must be voluntary.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS RICK HARTZELL

RICK HARTZELL Director of Athletics

Now entering his seventh year as UNI's Director of Athletics, Rick Hartzell has overseen unparalleled success and growth for the Panther athletics program. He was named the University's fourth fulltime director of athletics since UNI joined the Division I ranks on Aug. 9, 1999.

Take some time to talk to Hartzell and his passion for UNI athletics, and college athletics in general, comes across loud and clear. His love for the Panthers should be no surprise, since he was a UNI student-athlete during the mid-70s and was able to come back home to lead his alma mater's athletics program into the 21st Century. He also believes strongly in the "student" part of the term student-athlete and understands the importance of shaping well-rounded individuals for a life after competitive athletics are over.

The list of individual and team athletic successes since Hartzell took over at UNI is long and distinguished. The football team has claimed two conference titles the past four seasons, and the men's basketball team won its first Missouri Valley Conference championship in 2004, with back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances, including the school's first bid as an at-large team in 2005. UNI volleyball has won six of the past seven conference championships and made three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances during that span. Panther wrestling crowned its first Division I national champion in 2000 and has placed as high as 11th in the national tournament. Track and field and cross country teams have claimed numerous conference titles, including the last six indoor men's crowns. Baseball made its first NCAA tournament appearance in 2001, winning the rugged MVC crown. In fact, no less than 10 sports have seen teams or individuals in postseason action since Hartzell came back to the Cedar Valley.

Off the field, UNI student-athletes have shined academically, as well. UNI's overall student-athlete graduation rate is among the leaders in the MVC and Gateway Football Conference. UNI's overall student-athlete cumulative grade point average has risen dramatically, to better than 3.0 after the spring 2004 semester, for more than 400 student-athletes. The Panthers had no less than 25 student-athletes that earned academic all-conference honors in 2003-04.

Hartzell has been a key figure involved in several facility upgrades, including the development of the McLeod Center which broke ground last fall south of the UNI-Dome. When completed in 2006, it will house the men's and women's basketball programs, and volleyball and wrestling teams. Other fundraising initiatives include a new football locker room and enhancement of the outdoor track. Plans also are moving forward for a Human Performance Center that will house an athletics weight room, training rooms, team rooms, locker rooms and offices. In addition, Hartzell has overseen the effort to turn the UNI-Dome and future McLeod Center into an economic development site for the Cedar Valley by garnering concerts and other special events to campus. Another key effort spearheaded by Hartzell was UNI's radio and television agreements. Panther football and men's basketball has local television contracts for TV with KFXA (Fox 28) and for radio with KXEL, each of which was renewed for multiple years in 2004. UNI women's basketball and volleyball now is carried by radio and is one of the only schools in the Midwest to have regular-season broadcasts for home volleyball matches.

Hartzell has helped guide the University through the NCAA's certification process and has overseen the addition of women's soccer to varsity status. A past president of the Gateway Football Conference athletics directors, he currently is vice president of the Missouri Valley Conference administrators. He also serves as chair of the MVC sportsmanship committee, as well as serving as a member of the officiating committee and the Centennial Celebration committee. He recently received the All-American Football Foundation's General Robert Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award. Also, he is a highly-respected NCAA Division I men's basketball official, having worked games for the ACC, Big Ten and Conference USA, among others. He has officiated numerous NCAA tournament games.

Prior to being named at UNI, Hartzell served as Director of Athletics at Bucknell since 1988, directing a Division I program with 1-AA football consisting of 28 sports. Prior to his appointment at Bucknell, he was Director of Athletics and Chairman of Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1985-88, directing a 19-sport program which moved from Division II to Division I during his tenure.

Prior to being named at Baltimore County, he was an Assistant Athletic Director for football and men's and women's basketball at Northwestern University from 1982-85; was an Administrative Assistant to the Director of Athletics and assistant baseball coach from 1980-82 at the University of Iowa; and an instructor, assistant football coach and head baseball coach from 1977-80 at Coe College.

Hartzell played football and baseball for the Panthers. He received his bachelor's degree in Physical Education and English from UNI in 1974, and his master's in Educational Administration in 1977.

A native of Klemme, IA, he was a five-sport letterman at Klemme High School. He has two children - Nate, 24, and Amanda, 22. His personal interests include reading, fitness, auto racing and spending time with family and friends.

He and the former Jill George of Newton, IA, a Doctor of Chiropractic, were married Sept. 3 and reside in rural Cedar Falls.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH
Fifth year at UNI

If you've spent much time in the Midwest, in particular in small rural communities, then you have an understanding of University of Northern Iowa men's basketball coach Greg McDermott pretty well. The people there are honest, trustworthy, and loyal to a fault. Hard work isn't something to be feared, it's to be worn as a badge of honor.

That's the way it was for McDermott in his hometown of Cascade, Iowa, a small town in the eastern portion of the state. With four brothers - two younger, two older - he certainly had plenty of time to hone his skills as a basketball player, as there was always a game going on.

From those pickup games around the neighborhood, to the more structured games as he moved into high school and college, he was always interested in the "why's" of basketball - the reasoning behind a certain offensive or defensive philosophy, why you had to be a certain place at a certain time on the court.

Those questions led to a career as a coach, which has spanned 17 years, including seven as a head coach before he came back to take the reins of the Panthers' program. Upon arriving in Cedar Falls prior to the 2001-02 season, McDermott had the chore of rebuilding a program that hadn't had a winning season since 1996-97 and had finished in the top half of the Missouri Valley Conference just twice in 10 years. But in just his third season, he helped guide the Panthers to not only their first MVC title ever, but just the school's second-ever trip to the NCAA Division I tournament.

That special season of 2003-04 was backed up in 2004-05 by another 20-win season, and the school's first-ever NCAA tournament at-large bid. The Panthers, who received a No. 11 seed (also the highest in UNI annals), took #6 seed Wisconsin to the wire, falling 57-52 in a game that was within one possession late in the game.

The back-to-back 20 win seasons - also a first in school history - has made UNI basketball a program to watch for years to come, as all five starters from last year's squad return for this season.

The fruits of the team's success the last two year, were built with players, and most of them from the midwest. As any coach will tell you, the X's and O's may make the difference on a single possession, but having talented players make the difference in wins and losses.

McDermott's first recruit, center David Gruber, earned first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference honors as a senior, and left UNI as the school's career leader in field goal percentage. Matt Schneiderman, in the same class as Gruber, was a two-time MVC All-Academic pick. Ben Jacobson, the first underclassman to commit to play for McDermott, earned MVC tournament Most Outstanding Player honors in 2004, and was a first-team All-MVC selection in 2005. In fact, a total of 15 players have earned some sort of conference award in just four years McDermott has been at UNI's helm.

McDermott began his coaching career as an assistant from 1989-94 at the University of North Dakota. During his tenure, the Fighting Sioux made five consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, were ranked no. 1 in the final 1991 NCAA poll, earned two North Central Conference and North Central Region Championships, and compiled a 126-37 record.

Wayne State College took a chance on this up-and-coming force in the coaching ranks when it hired McDermott as head coach. His first team in 1994-95 captured just the school's second winning season in 17 years with a 14-13 record, a hint of good things to come. WSC won 116 games over six years against only 53 losses while setting single-season records for wins and appearing in numerous NCAA tournaments.

McDermott's journey to UNI ended with a one-year stint at North Dakota State University in 2000-01. The Bison finished 15-11 overall and defeated three Top 25 opponents on the road.

As a prep player, the 6-8 McDermott was taller than most of the other players in his conference, and pretty much had things his way. His senior year, he was named fourth team all-state by the Des Moines Register in basketball and was named Most Valuable Player of the 1983 Dr. Pepper All-Star game played in the UNI-Dome. He also pitched and played first base for the Cascade high school baseball team.

McDermott chose to come to UNI and play for two coaches who would profoundly influence his life, and his decision to become a coach: Jim Berry for his first three years (he redshirted his first season), and Eldon Miller for his final two campaigns.

"I couldn't have played for two better coaches or two better people in my five years at Northern Iowa," he said. "I wouldn't have been a Panther if it weren't for Coach Berry - he got this thing off to a great start. Coach Miller came in my last two years and obviously, I learned about character from Coach Miller and how to teach the game of basketball."

McDermott's 1,033 career points currently ranks 24th on UNI's all-time scoring chart. As a junior, he ranked 16th in the nation in field goal percentage (.587). He shot even better his senior year (.603). He led the Panthers in shooting three straight years, combining for a .595 percentage. As a junior, he ranked first in the Association of Mid-Continent Universities in field goal percentage, fifth in blocked shots, seventh in rebounding and 10th in scoring. As a senior, he was third in the league in field goal percentage and fourth in free throw percentage.

He was named second team all-conference as a junior and was a team co-captain as a senior. He also was a pre-season honorable mention all-American in 1987-88.

As a Panther, he played in 110 games, shot a career field goal percentage of .581, a career free throw percentage of .743, and averaged 4.4 rebounds and 9.4 points.

Upon graduation, McDermott played one season for the BCKZO Basketball Club in Wetzikon, Switzerland.

Though he has lived and coached in surrounding midwestern states, McDermott firmly believes the Panthers can win with a roster built primarily around Iowa high school players. Currently, there are seven players from the state of Iowa on UNI's roster.

"We're going to do everything possible to build the core of our team from the high schools in the state of Iowa," McDermott said. "I believe there is quality here.

There are too many kids leaving the state to go play elsewhere. That's not to say we won't fill specific needs from the surrounding areas, but I recruited 15 Iowa players when I was in North Dakota and Nebraska. My staff and I are going to try to keep players in state and at the University of Northern Iowa. Some of the best teams throughout the history of UNI basketball have been comprised of Iowa players.

"If you look at the kids we've signed, they want to be at UNI," McDermott said. "They had other options and opportunities, but this is where they want to be. If that's the case going in, you have a lot better chance to be successful with those people, not only on the basketball floor, but in the classroom and community."

Q&A WITH COACH MCDERMOTT

Coming off back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances, and with all five starters returning, expectations for this year's team are the highest in the program's history. How do you expect the team to deal with that?

High expectations are a good thing. It is an indication that your program has reached a certain level of success. We have the opportunity to have a very competitive team this season. I'm anxious to see if this team can grow into the cohesive unit we believe it can become.

What do you think the keys to this team reaching its potential are?

Chemistry and developing depth. We have our nucleus back, but we lost three important players in Chris Foster, Jon Godfread and Pete Schmit. It was a good feeling as a coach last year, knowing that we had three seniors coming off the bench who knew what we wanted and how to execute. This team has the ability to have great chemistry, but each team is different and those things take time to develop. How quickly it develops will determine our level of success.

You're entering your fifth year as coach. Did you expect to be in the position you find yourself, coming off two straight NCAA appearances with hopes high for a third straight berth?

We had so far to go when we started here. That first team really bought into what we wanted to do. That work ethic was passed on to guys like Ben Jacobson, John Little and Erik Crawford. It got the ball rolling earlier than we thought and we were able to break through with the Valley tournament title in 2004.

Last year's team received the school's first-ever NCAA at-large bid. What was that feeling like, compared to two years ago after receiving the automatic bid?

Two very different feelings, both great. The MVC tournament title (in 2004) was great when it happened, and then we spent a week not worrying about anything, just looking forward to finding out who we played. We did a big viewing on campus with several hundred fans. Last year, we gathered as a team in my basement. After we lost in the MVC tournament, we were pretty down, but figured we had some sort of postseason play ahead of us. As the games played out the following week, many things went right for us around the country (in conference tournaments), and by selection Sunday, we felt we had an opportunity to be selected. The anticipation in the room was very high. When they called our name, the place exploded. That was one of the better moments I've ever been associated with.

You've been a part of rebuilding programs at Wayne State as well as UNI. What are the keys to turning a program around?

First, it starts with a great coaching staff, which I have always been blessed to have. You need to have people that have fun and enjoy each other. A successful program starts with the coaching staff and trickles down to the players. If you have the right attitude towards things -- working hard, with attention to detail -- you can be successful. The second factor is having guys buy into their roles. Not everyone can be a star, and especially in our system, we encourage unselfish play.

Last year's team set a school record for three-pointers made. The three-pointer has always been a focal point of your offense. Why?

We started running this offense a long time ago. It's been effective for us because most of the time, we have four guys on the floor that can face up and shoot from the perimeter. That helps spread things out and obviously the three-pointer is one of the great equalizers, you can catch up in a hurry if you're behind. But a key for us has always been to get the ball inside. Players like Gruber, Scheiderman, Coleman and Stout have had one-on-one match-ups on the block, due in large part to our ability to shoot the three-point shot.

What constitutes a good shot in your offense?

It's an individual thing. We work with each player to find what a good shot is for them. After we establish what that is, we want absolutely no hesitation during the game. If you're open, in rhythm and comfortable, we encourage the shot.

Talk about how you put together a schedule.

The strength of the Valley, particularly last year with us being the eighth-ranked conference in the country, was a key in us getting an at-large bid to the tournament. We want to play good teams in the non-conference, both home and road, because that helps prepare us for the Valley. Winning on the road in our league is very difficult. By playing quality opponents in non-conference play that prepares us for MVC play.

Describe your basketball philosophy.

We stress fundamentals and execution. We value each possession, trying to minimize our mistakes. We don't gamble a lot on defense. On offense, we stress to our players that team execution is more important than individual statistics. If we execute properly, we'll find open shots. Our coaching staff does a great job preparing a game plan that gives us a chance to be successful.

Who have been the key people to influence your basketball philosophy?

I have been blessed to have my path cross with many great coaches in my life. Jerry Roling, Bob Davidshofer, Larry Takes and Al Marshal at Cascade High School. Rich Glas gave me the opportunity to enter college coaching. I learned a great deal from him. Jim Berry and Eldon Miller, as well as several assistant coaches at UNI, had a tremendous impact on my life. I learned so much from each of them it's difficult to summarize how my philosophy was shaped. They did, however, hold one common thread: They cared deeply about the young people they coached, a trait that's very important to me and my coaching staff.

Former University of Wisconsin-Parkside head coach Jeff Rutter is in his third year as an assistant coach for the Panthers.

Rutter was head coach with the UWP Rangers from 1996 until being appointed at UNI. They finished 15-13 overall his final season, their first winning record since the 1987-88 season when they recorded an 18-12 mark. The school was an NAIA affiliate through 1994, when it made the move to NCAA Division II.

In his rookie year as head coach in 1996-97, Rutter's team stunned the no. 1 team in the country, the University of Indianapolis, 63-45. In his second season, the team posted its first back-to-back double-digit win seasons in 10 years. In 2001-02, UWP was nationally ranked (no. 16) for the first time since the school joined the Division II ranks.

Rutter developed the Adopt-a-Ranger program and the Junior Rangers and built a strong connection with schools in the Racine-Kenosha area. His teams posted some of the highest grade point averages in the school's basketball 35-year history. He assisted in developing corporate sponsorship programs and was instrumental in the development of the Ranger Athletic Club and the men's basketball Dunk Club.

He also has taught at various levels, including serving as a clinical associate professor from 1996-2003 at UWP, a lecturer at North Dakota State from 1990-95 and teaching at the elementary, junior and senior high school levels.

Rutter lettered in basketball and football at Nathan Hale High School in West Allis, Wis. He played college basketball at both Wisconsin-Waukesha and Winona State, from where he earned his bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1988. He received his master's in Physical Education from North Dakota State in 1992.

He served one year as an assistant at Stetson University in 1995-96 and from 1990-95 at North Dakota State, the first two as a graduate assistant. NDSU posted a 43-17 mark and made two NCAA tournament appearances his final two seasons there. The Bison advanced to the "Sweet 16" with a 21-9 mark in 1993-94 before earning their first North Central Conference championship in 14 years with a 22-8 record in 1994-95.

Rutter was born Jan. 28, 1965, in West Allis, Wis.. He and his wife, Shari, have a son, A.J.

ASSISTANT COACH
Morningside '99
Third Year at UNI

P.J. Hogan is in his third year at the University of Northern Iowa, joining Greg McDermott's staff prior to the 2003-04 season, and is in his first season as an assistant coach. He has served as the team's graduate manager the past two years while pursuing his master's degree.

Prior to coming to UNI, Hogan served as the top assistant coach at Southwest State University (known today as Southwest Minnesota State) for two years. At the Division II school, he helped lead them to an overall record of 38-18 and two second place finishes in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference. The 2001-02 team won 21 games - the second-most wins in school history - and advanced to the conference tournament championship game.

While at Southwest State, he was in charge of recruiting and player development. In addition, he oversaw the team's strength and conditioning program, and served as the team's academic coordinator.

Before going to Southwest State, Hogan worked for McDermott at North Dakota State University during the 2000-01 season as an assistant coach. Hogan followed McDermott to NDSU after spending one year with him at Wayne State College as a graduate assistant. At WSC, Hogan was part of one of most successful seasons in school history, as the Wildcats went 26-6 and reached the NCAA Division II Sweet Sixteen.

A native of Dubuque, Iowa, Hogan was a four-year letterwinner at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa. He graduated from Morningside in 1999 with a degree in sociology and was named to the North Central Conference's honorable mention all-academic team. A high school graduate of Dubuque Hempstead, Hogan was a Class 4A first team all-state performer.

Ron Smith joined former head coach Sam Weaver's staff seven seasons ago and was retained by current head coach Greg McDermott. He is in his first season as UNI's director of basketball operations after serving as an assistant coach the past seven years.

Prior to being appointed at UNI, Smith spent four years as Athletic Director and head basketball coach for Alton Community Unit School District. The district was comprised of 19 schools and about 8,000 students. His responsibilities included coordinating all athletic activities for 20 different sports and over 100 teams. Prior to his arrival in Alton, the varsity basketball teams had only one winning season in the previous eight. Smith's last team recorded its third consecutive winning record, setting a school mark for most wins in three consecutive years (63). The 1997 team advanced to the state tournament for the first time in 42 years, and only the third time in school history. His overall record at Alton was 74-40.

Prior to taking the Alton position, Smith spent nine years as an assistant at Southern Illinois and was part of a staff which turned one of the worst programs in the Missouri Valley Conference into one of the best. His last six years in Carbondale were highlighted by six consecutive post-season tournament appearances and four Valley titles (1990, 92, 93 and 94).

The Benton, Ill., native spent four years as an assistant basketball coach at Benton High School before accepting the SIU position, which included acting as academic advisor.

After graduating from Benton in 1972, Smith spent two years at Rend Lake College before transferring to Illinois State, from where he graduated in 1976. He earned his master's in Guidance and Educational Psychology from SIU in 1983. He joined Rich Herrin's staff at Benton in 1981 after serving as head coach and athletic director at Coulterville High School for five years. While at Benton, the teams were 103-22 overall and Smith's junior varsity teams posted an overall 43-6 record.

Smith has served as a sponsor for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes chapters at SIU and UNI. He was selected as an assistant coach for the 1998 Illinois Basketball Coaches Association (IBCA) Class AA South All-Star Game, and received several other honors in 1997, including IBCA District 19 Coach of the Year, Telegraph Newspaper Coach of the Year, Belleville News Democrat Coach of the Year and in 1996, received his first Telegraph Newspaper Coach of the Year honor.

He and his wife, Regina, have three children - Tim, who is married to Jamie; Matt, who is married to Ellie; and Brooke, a sophomore at UNI. They also have a grandson, Isaiah, son of Tim and Jamie.

OUTLOOK

If things come in threes, as the old adage says, it could be a very, very good year for the University of Northern Iowa men's basketball team.

Two years ago, the success of the UNI men's basketball team took many by surprise. The Missouri Valley Conference tournament title and ensuing NCAA tournament appearance; the school's second 20-win season since turning Division I; the team's longest winning streak in 38 years; and three wins over top 25 teams, among other accomplishments, raised the bar for Panthers basketball.

That led into last season, where entering the year, expectations were the highest in the program's history. With three starters returning, UNI was picked to tie for third in the Missouri Valley Conference preseason poll, its highest-ever position heading into the season. When all was said and done after the 2004-05 campaign, the Panthers had posted another 20-win season, and received the school's first-ever NCAA tournament at-large bid.

Flash forward to 2005-06, year five of the Greg McDermott era, and for the third straight season, expectations have gone up another level. All five starters return from last year's team that finished 21-11 and took eventual NCAA Elite Eight team Wisconsin to the wire in the first round of the NAAs, before eventually falling 57-52.

With the entire lineup back, the Panthers have been ranked as high as 16th nationally in one preseason poll. Most have projected a first or second place finish for UNI in the rugged Missouri Valley Conference. And senior guard Ben Jacobson was named to the Wooden Award All-America Team Preseason Watch List, one of just 50 such players nationwide.

It all adds up to this: UNI's 2005-06 team has the potential to be one of the best teams in the school's history.

"We don't shy away from expectations," said McDermott, who has overseen the renaissance of the Panthers program the past four seasons. "It's an indication our program has achieved a level of success, and when that happens, people expect it to continue. Our challenge is to work hard every day to be the best team we can be. Whether we can achieve all our goals remains to be seen."

UNI set a new school record for three-pointers made in 2004-05 with 226, breaking the previous mark of 223 set the year before. In fact, the four highest totals of three-pointers in Panther history are the last four years. Shooting the basketball has always been a priority for a McDermott-coached team. Expect more of the same in 2005-06.

"We build our teams around the ability to shoot the basketball," McDermott explained. We always want to have at least three and usually four guys on the floor that can make perimeter shots. It spreads the floor and helps both phases of the offensive game, because not only do you have to guard people outside, it helps the post guys because they can get more isolations down low."

Guards

For the Panthers, it all starts here.

There isn't a team in the Valley - perhaps the country - that can match the experience UNI has in the backcourt. The team's four primary guards - Ben Jacobson, Erik Crawford, John Little and Brooks McKowen -- have combined for 341 career games played, and nearly 400 three-pointers. Expect to see three of them on the floor at most times, and don't be surprised if all four are on the hardwood together.

"We're blessed with talented and experienced guards," McDermott said. "They're also versatile and can all play multiple positions. That gives us flexibility in being able to play a smaller, quicker lineup that can present match-up problems."

Jacobson, a 2005 first-team All-MVC pick, led the league in scoring after averaging 17.9 points per game. He made nearly 50 percent of his field goal attempts and 45 percent of his threes, and enters his senior season 7th on UNI's career scoring chart with 1,320 points.

Jacobson's summer between his junior and senior seasons was also memorable, as he was the leading scorer (16.7 ppg) on an NIT All-Star touring team that played in England and Ireland. And as mentioned before, Jacobson was named to the Wooden Award Preseason All-America Watch List.

"There's no doubt that when his career is over, Ben will go down as one of the best ever to wear a UNI uniform," McDermott said. "He had a fantastic junior season. For a player in our system to lead the league in scoring is impressive, and a testament to how hard Ben works. He puts in the time on shooting and has earned all his accolades."

Crawford, perhaps the Panthers best all-around player, enters his third season as a starter. He averaged 13.3 points, 4.9 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game a year ago, while shooting 47 percent from the field. He reached double-digits in scoring 24 times, including a career-high 28 against Iowa State.

The versatile 6-4 wing is also the Panthers' top defender, and his strength (215 pounds) allows him to guard both perimeter and post players.

"Erik is as complete a player as we have ever coached," McDermott said. "There aren't many weaknesses in his game, and he's the best defensive player we have. We feel he's an all-conference caliber player, but he's on the other side of the floor as Ben, which maybe takes the spotlight off him. To Erik's credit, he puts the team goals ahead of his own personal goals. He's a winner."

McKowen returns for his third season as UNI's point guard, and has posted a record of 37-16 as a starter over two years. After a freshman season where he earned All-MVC Freshman Team honors, McKowen's shooting numbers dropped off in his sophomore year. He had a career-high 11 assists against Iowa State, and had a nearly 2-to-1 assist to turnover ratio for the season.

"I judge a point guard on how well they run a team, and if the team wins," McDermott said. "Brooks has started for us for two years and we've played in two NCAA tournaments. His job is to run the ballclub. I do know that with some of the struggles he had shooting the ball a year ago, Brooks dedicated himself to getting back to the kind of numbers he posted as a freshman. He's in the best shape of his life and has done all the right things during the offseason to prepare himself to be a leader for our team."

Speaking of leaders, one of UNI's key ones this year won't even be in the starting lineup, although he'll be on the floor for his fourth straight season. Little, a 6-0 sparkplug who averaged 20 minutes per game, is one of the team's top defenders but also showed he can be a dangerous offensive weapon. He scored eight or more points in five of the team's last eight games in 2004-05, and is a career 39 percent three-point shooter. But what Little brings more than anything, according to McDermott, are the intangibles that are necessary for a team to be successful.

"I've been coaching for 17 years, and I've never had a player who does what he is supposed to all the time as well as John," McDermott said. "He is all about the team and winning, and wanting to be the best. John is our team leader. He has taken a back seat statistically to some of our other guys, but he's invaluable. We would not be where we are today without John."

Also returning in the backcourt are two sophomores, Jared Josten and Adam Viet. Josten is arguably the fastest player on the team, and Viet is the team's best pure shooter. Each will have an opportunity to compete for minutes.

"Jared makes plays and is extremely quick," said McDermott. "What he has to continue to work on is playing at the right speed and being a true point guard. Adam has had the tough situation of playing behind three very good players, but my hope is he will crack the rotation this year. He is a guy who can make shots."

The Panthers welcome four newcomers to the team. Junior college transfer Michael Williams, from Hutchinson Community College, will compete for minutes at the point guard slot. Freshman Brian Haak, from Spencer, Iowa, is a gritty player in the mold of former Panther Pete Schmit. True freshmen Travis Brown and Mason Stewart, both athletic wings with good three-point shooting ability, have bright futures in the Panther program.

Front Line

Fresh off a breakout year, Grant Stout returns as the team's power forward. Entering last year, most of the Panthers questions entering the season were in the front line, after the graduation of David Gruber and Matt Schneiderman. Stout was able to respond to the challenge in his first season as a starter.

The 6-8 Stout was an honorable mention All-MVC pick a year ago, as well as being named to the MVC Most Improved and MVC All-Defense teams. He averaged 11.3 points, as well as finishing second in the conference in both rebounding (7.7 rpg) and blocked shots (2.3 bpg). His 75 rejections was a UNI single-season record. He put on nearly 20 pounds of muscle in the offseason, which will give him a more physical presence around the basket.

"Grant really came through for us last year," McDermott said. "He put up great numbers offensively and rebounding-wise, but also gave us a shot blocking presence that we hadn't had before. The additional strength he has gained during the offseason will help him, as Grant will play a lot of minutes for us. He has to be on the floor."

Redshirt freshman Dylan Grimsley is eligible this season after sitting out last year. The native of Sioux City is one of the team's better rebounders, but can go outside and hit the three-point shot. According to McDermott, Grimsley will have the opportunity to battle for playing time.

Eric Coleman, the 2005 MVC Freshman of the Year, is back as the team's starting center. Coleman took the Valley by storm a year ago, averaging 10.7 points and 6.4 rebounds per game, while leading the team in field goal percentage (.573). His long arms and left-handed shot made him a difficult match-up for opposing big men, plus he proved to be an outstanding passer, averaging 2.0 assists per game. He reached double-figures in scoring 19 times on the season and had three double-doubles.

"Eric had as good a freshman season as anyone in the history of the program," said McDermott. "He has a very high basketball IQ, and he was able to pick things up very quickly. He plays the game with great tenacity and passion. The great thing about Eric is, as good a year as he had, he has so much more room to improve. It will be fun to watch him develop over the next three years."

Backing up Coleman will be 6-10 sophomore Atila Santos. The native of Salvador, Brazil played limited minutes a year ago, but with the graduation of Jon Godfread, the reserve post role falls to him. Santos is an extremely athletic player with the ability to score down low and is a strong shot-blocker.

"Atila has the potential to be a difference-maker for us because of his athletic ability," McDermott said. "He continues to improve. We expect him to contribute for us."

Schedule

UNI's schedule is once again challenging, as it will face nine teams that were in either the NIT or NCAA tournaments a year ago.

In the non-conference slate, UNI hosts 2005

NCAA team Iowa, while traveling to face NCAA squads Iowa State and LSU. The Panthers also make a trip to face NIT participant Western Michigan, as well as having home games against Loyola, UMKC and Florida A&M. For the second straight year, UNI will play in the Las Vegas Holiday Invitational and play two games in Las Vegas, against Hawaii Pacific and Dayton. In addition, UNI will host a Bracket Buster game in February.

The Missouri Valley Conference, which as a league finished eighth in the final 2005 RPI rankings, had a record five teams in postseason play a year ago. In addition to UNI, Southern Illinois and Creighton made the NCAAs, while Wichita State and Missouri State were invited to the NIT.

SEASON IN REVIEW

Coming off an NCAA tournament appearance in 2004, expectations were at an all-time high for UNI entering the 2004-05 season. Head coach Greg McDermott's Panthers, who returned three starters from that squad, entered the year with their highest preseason pick ever in the Missouri Valley Conference, being voted in a tie for third.

Certainly, the three returning starters - guards Brooks McKowen, Erik Crawford and Ben Jacobson - gave UNI fans plenty of reason for optimism. That trio combined for 147 three-pointers the previous season, and would be looked to as the key cogs in the Panthers offensive machine. There was depth in the backcourt as well, with Chris Foster, Pete Schmit and John Little all back.

The biggest question marks surrounding the team were inside, where both Matt Schneiderman and David Gruber - the two primary inside players from the 2003-04 MVC Tournament Championship team - graduated and moved on to start their professional basketball careers.

One of their replacements was already on campus in Grant Stout, who averaged nearly 15 minutes per game as a reserve as a true freshman. The Panthers' other frontline starter, unknown entering preseason camp, turned out to be a true freshman in Eric Coleman.

The Panthers opened the season with a win over Wayne State (Neb.), where McDermott coached for six seasons. After that, UNI traveled to face perennial NCAA powerhouse Cincinnati, and learned quite a bit about its team that night. Leading for much of the game, the Bearcats made a late run to tie the contest in regulation, and was able to edge the Panthers, 76-70, in double overtime.

Returning home, the Panthers defeated intrastate rival Iowa State, 99-82, as Jacobson, Crawford and Coleman each topped 20 points in the game. That was followed by a 80-73 road win at Loyola. UNI then headed down I-380 for its annual meeting with Iowa, who was ranked 17th at the time. The Panthers hung with the Hawkeyes, and had possession of the ball down by just one with less than 30 seconds left in the game. But Iowa escaped with a 76-73 win.

The Panthers traveled to face UMKC in Kansas City, and posted an impressive 81-58 win over the Kangaroos. That victory started a season-best seven game winning streak that would include home victories over UW-Green Bay, Wagner and Longwood; and neutral site wins over Valparaiso and Northwestern State in Las Vegas.

UNI posted its seventh straight win in its Missouri Valley Conference opener, posting a 75-55 win over Illinois State on Jan. 3, 2005. After a road loss to Evansville, UNI posted a win at Indiana State. A pair of victories - the first at home, the second on the road - over Southwest Missouri State were sandwiched around a heartbreaking 67-66 loss to Creighton with the Bluejays picking up a loose ball and hitting a game-winning shot at the buzzer.

After the second win over SMS, UNI dropped three of its next four games to fall to 5-5 overall in MVC play at nearly the halfway point of the conference season. UNI's late-season surge started with a 79-61 win over Evansville in the UNI-Dome, followed by a key 67-61 home victory over league-leader Southern Illinois.

After another one-point loss at Creighton - despite Jacobson's 31 points - was followed by a pair of one-point wins -- at Illinois State (65-64), and home against Drake (61-60). The latter game was decided on a McKowen free throw with no time remaining, after the Panthers' point guard was fouled in the act of shooting as time expired.

UNI then posted an 86-75 win over Western Michigan in front of a national audience on ESPN2 on Bracket Buster Saturday, in front of a raucous crowd of 6,476 at the UNI-Dome. After a loss at Southern Illinois, the Panthers returned to Cedar Falls for Senior Day, and posted an 81-72 win over Bradley.

That set up one of the more memorable games in recent UNI history. Standing at 20-9 overall entering the game, the Panthers needed a win at Wichita State to keep its NCAA at-large hopes alive. Things looked bleak as WSU led, 64-54, with less than three minutes to play. But UNI went on a 10-0 run, capped by a Crawford three-pointer with 15 seconds to play.

SEASON IN REVIEW

to tie the game at 64-all. After a timeout, WSU point guard Adam Liberty scored on a short jumper in the lane to give them a 66-64 edge with just four seconds to play.

UNI called timeout and ran an out-of-bounds play it hadn't run all season. Crawford threw the ball to Coleman at center court, who found Jacobson on the left sideline. Closely guarded, Jacobson dribbled up the court, turned and fired from 25 feet - and found nothing but net as the buzzer sounded, giving the Panthers a thrilling 67-66 win.

Though tied for third in the MVC regular-season standings, UNI received the fourth seed for the 2005 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference tournament. The Panthers suffered a tough 70-62 loss to fifth-seeded SMS in the quarterfinals.

After an agonizing week of waiting and watching other teams play around the country in their conference tournaments, Selection Sunday came - and UNI was one of the 65 teams named to the tournament, receiving the schools first-ever at-large bid. The Panthers received a #11 seed (also a program high) and would face #6 seed Wisconsin in Oklahoma City, Okla. in the NCAA tournament.

Despite getting behind by double-digits in the first half, UNI battled back and pulled to within one possession with less than four minutes to play in the game. However, despite numerous opportunities, the Panthers could not get the key shot to fall and fell, 57-52, to the Badgers. UNI finished the season 21-11 overall, 11-7 in the MVC.

After the team's success, there were plenty of individual accolades to go around. Jacobson, who led the Missouri Valley Conference in scoring at 17.9 points per game, was a first-team All-MVC pick. Both Crawford (13.3 ppg) and Stout (11.3 ppg, 7.7 rpg, 2.4 bpg) were named honorable mention all-conference, while Stout was also named to the conference's Most Improved and All-Defense teams. Stout finished second in the league in both rebounding and blocked shots. Freshman Eric Coleman (10.7 ppg, 6.4 rpg) became the first UNI player to earn Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year honors, after starting all 32 games at center.

TEN MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE SCHOOLS WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE FOURTH ANNUAL

An event-record 100 teams -- representing 18 collegiate athletic conferences -- will compete to appear in the ESPN-created event, with the entire BRACKET BUSTER SERIES slate of matchups to be announced in late January. Since the event's inception in 2003, the Missouri Valley Conference has posted a three-year record of 15-8, including a 4-0 mark in 2003, a 6-4 slate in 2004 and a 5-4 record in 2005. HISTORY

ALL-TIME COACHES

CHARLES PELL (1903-06)

Though UNI's basketball history dates back to 1900, partial records exist only before 1905. Charles Pell was the first coach to lead a team for more than one season when he compiled an 11-12 mark between 1903-06.

R.F. SEYMOUR (1906-09)

R.F. Seymour's three-season record was 14-15, with his best mark coming in his first campaign when he finished at 5-4. One of the highlights was a 53-27 win over in-state rival Drake in 1907-08.

Former athletic director and head basketball coach L.L. Mendenhall, a member of UNI's Hall of Fame, still holds the record for best percentage when he compiled a 27-7 record (.794) from 1921-24.

His best season was 1922-23, when his team finished 10-1 overall. The school joined the Iowa Conference during his tenure, in 1923.

ARTHUR D. DICKINSON (1924-32, 1933-37)

Another UNI Hall of Famer, Dickinson is perhaps best known as a track coach and for the still-running Dickinson Relays held at UNI's UNI-Dome.

O.M. "HON" NORDLY (1937-43, 1945-54)

With a tenure interrupted by World War II, Nordly compiled a 166-127 record and won five conference titles, the first conference crowns earned in school history. His teams also beat Iowa State for the first time, defeating the Cyclones 38-29 in 1938-39. He's a member of UNI's Hall of Fame.

JAMES WITHAM (1956-61)

Former athletic director and UNI Hall of Famer James Witham won 63 games and lost 49. His last two seasons, he compiled records of 15-8 and 16-5, helping to set the stage for UNI's approaching glory years.

NORM STEWART (1961-67)

Former Missouri head coach and UNI Hall of Famer Norm Stewart compiled a 97-42 record, won two conference titles and took the Panthers to two NCAA Tournaments. The team finished 23-4 in 1963-64, a tied record that still stands for games won in a season. His teams beat Iowa State twice -- 59-54 in 1963-64 and 54-50 in 1964-65.

ZEKE HOGELAND (1967-73)

Hogeland compiled a 70-74 record, with three straight winning seasons before falling to 6-20 in 1970-71, 10-13 in 1971-72 and 11-13 in 1972-73.

JAMES BERRY (1973-86)

Jim Berry still holds the mark for having coached the most games in Panther basketball history at 354 after compiling a 144-210 record. His tenure is best known for taking UNI into the NCAA Division I ranks in 1980. He catapulted the Panthers into the Division II playoffs in 1978-79, ending with an 18-11 record, and the team just missed a NIT berth in 1983-84 when it finished 18-10 overall, the same year UNI defeated Wisconsin and Kansas State.

ELDON MILLER (1986-98)

Former Ohio State head coach Eldon Miller compiled a 164-178 mark with the Panthers. He led the Panthers to their first NCAA Division I tournament in 1990, the same year they defeated Iowa in the UNI-Dome before a state-record crowd of over 22,000. The Panthers joined the Missouri Valley Conference during his tenure. He was named the Valley's Coach of the Year in 1997. He is a member of UNI's Hall of Fame.

SAM WEAVER (1998-2001)

Sam Weaver has the unflattering position of having one of the lowest win-loss record as a UNI coach, but what isn't obvious from the record is that his tenure was plagued by injuries to key players and defections.
